MG093350

Our Isla collection has expanded into the bedroom. Each bed frame is crafted from strong, peeled rattan, handwoven into an all-over crisscross pattern. Neutral finishes and naturally occurring knob variations give the line a light and organic look. Perfectly suited for the most extravagant or relaxed bedrooms, or any style in between.

Keep in mind that all Made Goods beds are designed to be used with a box spring.

WHAT TO EXPECT?

Rattan is typically harvested from rattan palms, which grow in tropical regions, and the appearance and texture can vary depending on the environment. For example, whether the season was more dry or wet than usual can impact its natural color, and the time of year it's harvested can affect how it absorbs color. Some might even include small marks of darker shades, leaving each piece with a subtle sense of individuality. These types of variation are why we love utilizing natural materials for our designs; they offer each piece its own hint of character.
